“新文科”三大特点：跨学科、国际化、全贯通

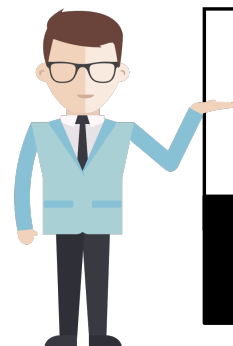

“新文科”的愿景与使命

新文科致力于解决真实世界的问题，培养文理兼修的人才，促进命运共同体的形成。联合国可持续发展目标(SDGs)指出，当今世界各国都应采取行动消除贫困、促进经济增长，解决教育、卫生、社会保障需求，面对气候变化和环境议题。这意味着：

- 人文研究需要打破国家、地域、学科的界限；
- 人文研究者需要具备国际视野与全球意识，捕捉共性议题；
- 国际化是我国人文社科研究争取话语权的重要手段。

“新文科”的重要特点

《光明日报》指出，新文科的最大特点是文理交叉：“在方法论上，传统的人文社科方法，应转向运用现代科技、信息技术和人工智能，特别是要运用算法，将文科的定性方法与定量方法相统一，彰显新文科的科学性。”

- ✓ 了解本领域的国际动态与研究热点
- ✓ 在研究方向与方法上守正创新
- ✓ 将自身科研成果与国际同行交流

高校教师视角下的人文社会科学国际发表

- 受访教师对人文社会科学国际发表都持开放或积极的态度，没有人反对国际发表及其激励制度。普遍提到，国际期刊相对严格的双向匿名评审制度使稿件评审严肃和客观，不存在“人情稿”现象；
- 受访教师都坦言，对他们而言，国际发表等同于英文发表；
- 英语水平不足不应成为阻碍国内顶尖大学文科教师国际发表的借口。他所在学院有几位教师虽没有在海外获得博士学位，英语水平也不算高，但因为研究内容新颖、范式符合要求，论文经过文字修改润饰后同样能在级别较高的SSCI和A&HCI期刊发表；
- 英语仍然是当前国际学术界使用最为广泛的语言，采用英文写作可以使论文获得更加广泛的读者群体...有利于中国学者在国际学术界获得话语权...重大学术发现的研究论文如果用英文发表，就有可能影响西方的学术界，甚至通过西方学术界去影响西方舆论；
- 中国作为一个政治经济实力不断增强、不断走向世界的国家，参与世界也是在参与规则的制定，影响规则的制定。

SSCI主编告诉你：发表SSCI和A&HCI很容易

有闲的学术 2025年04月14日 10:18 上海

近年来，中国学者在SSCI和A&HCI期刊上发表论文的数量不断增加，特别是在一些中国传统学科领域，如文学、历史学、哲学等发表了一系列具有国际影响力的论文。

这一现象反映了中国学术研究的国际化和高水平化趋势，也表明中国学者在国际学术界的影响力和地位逐渐提高。

发SSCI对于中国学者来讲有以下几点优势：

一、SSCI是国际知名的学术索引系统，收录的期刊具有很高的学术水平和影响力，在SSCI上发表论文国际认可度高。

二、在SSCI上发论文需要具备较高的学术水平和质量，有助于提升研究能力和学术水平。

三、SSCI收录的期刊主要面向国际学者，发表在这些期刊上可以促进国际学术交流与合作，接触到更广泛的研究资源和思想。

四、在申请国际项目和奖学金时，发表在SSCI上的论文可以作为重要的学术成果和证明，提高申请者的竞争力。

当然，发SSCI也有一些困难，具体体现在：

①竞争激烈：SSCI收录的期刊数量相对较少，而申请发表的论文众多，因此竞争非常激烈。

②要求高：在SSCI上发表论文需要具备较高的学术水平和质量，对研究方法和创新性等方面都有较高的要求。

③语言障碍：SSCI期刊主要使用英语作为工作语言，对于非英语母语的学者来说存在一定的语言

区域国别学（Area Studies）是一个跨学科的学术领域，专注于对特定地理区域或国家的综合研究，涉及历史、政治、经济、文化、语言、社会等多方面的综合分析，旨在深入理解特定区域或国家的独特性和复杂性。

作为一门独立的学科诞生于20世纪中期。第二次世界大战后，随着全球政治格局的变化及冷战的开始，以美国为首的西方国家对包括苏联和东欧、东亚、拉美、非洲在内的各个地区深入了解需求增加。19世纪末20世纪初 大规模的全球化开始后（如右图1900年这一节点），更加推动了区域国别学的迅速发展。英国学者加入讨论。

2014年，英国政府启动的学科评估体系 Research Excellence Framework(REF) 区域研究评审委员会在申报指南中对该学科进行了明确定义。2017-2018年，清华大学、北京大学相继成立国际与地区研究院。2022年9月，国务院学位委员会教育部关于印发《研究生教育学科专业目录（2022年）》，确定将区域国别学纳入第14类交叉学科一级学科目录。

This study integrates elements of neorealist and neoliberal theories with a model of institutional balancing that identifies the conditions under which this form of soft balancing occurs. Institutional balancing, i.e. countering pressures or threats through initiating, utilizing, and dominating multilateral institutions, is a new realist strategy for states to pursue security under anarchy. What will China's foreign policy be under Xi Jinping, the new Chinese leader in Beijing? Will Xi follow Hu Jintao-his predecessor-or change the course of China's foreign policy orientation in the next decade? Engaging in the current debates over rising China's foreign policy and its implications for regional security, we suggest 'bringing the leaders back in' for a study of China's foreign poli ... 显示更多

Global International Relations (IR) and Regional Worlds A New Agenda for International Studies

Acharya, A

Dec 2014 | INTERNATIONAL STUDIES QUARTERLY 58 (4) , pp.647-659

The discipline of International Relations (IR) does not reflect the voices, experiences, knowledge claims, and contributions of the vast majority of the societies and states in the world, and often marginalizes those outside the core countries of the West. With IR scholars around the world seeking to find their own voices and reexamining their own traditions, our challenge now is to chart a cou... 显示更多

Norm Subsidiarity and Regional Orders: Sovereignty, Regionalism, and Rule-Making in the Third World

Acharya, A

Mar 2011 | INTERNATIONAL STUDIES QUARTERLY 55 (1) , pp.95-123

This paper proposes a new conceptual tool to study norm dynamics in world politics. Termed norm subsidiarity, it concerns the process whereby local actors create rules with a view to preserve their autonomy from dominance, neglect, violation, or abuse by more powerful central actors. After a theoretical discussion of the definition, motivations, and effects of norm subsidiarity, the paper offer... 显示更多

Scholars of International Relations (IR) increasingly realise that their discipline, including its theories and methods, often neglects voices and experiences outside of the West. But how do we address this problem and move the discipline forward? While some question whether 'Western' and 'non-Western' (or 'post-Western') are useful labels, there are also other perspectives, including those who... 显示更多

1 Normative power Europe: A contradiction in terms? 1,862 被引频次

Manners, J

Jun 2002 | JOURNAL OF COMMON MARKET STUDIES 40 (2), pp.235-258

Twenty years ago, in the pages of the Journal of Common Market Studies, Hedley Bull launched a searing critique of the European Community's 'civilian power' in international affairs. Since that time the increasing role of the European Union (EU) in areas of security and defence policy has led to a seductiveness in adopting the notion of 'military power Europe'. In contrast, I will attempt to ar ... 显示更多

1999 | ANNUAL REVIEW OF POLITICAL SCIENCE 2, pp.115-144

This essay synthesizes the results of the large number of studies of late-20th-century democratization published during the last 20 years. Strong evidence supports the claims that democracy is more likely in more developed countries and that regime transitions of all kinds are more likely during economic downturns. Very few of the other arguments advanced in the transitions literature, however, ... 显示更多

1 Clearing the smog ceiling: The impact of women's political empowerment on air quality

Rios, V; Barba, J; Pascual, P

Dec 2024 | EUROPEAN JOURNAL OF POLITICAL ECONOMY 85

This study explores the impact of female political empowerment on air quality outcomes. Women's stronger environmental behaviors may lead to better air quality as they progressively break the glass ceiling in political participation. We use a novel data set on regional air pollutant emissions and women's political empowerment for a sample of 230 countries.

2 Political Stigma and Preference Falsification: Theory and Observational Evidence

Valentim, V

Oct 2024 (在线发表) | JOURNAL OF POLITICS

Do political preferences translate into behavior? I argue that when individuals support a stigmatized party, they have an incentive to hide that support. I start by theoretically discussing the meaning of political stigma. I define it as a situation in which individuals perceive that there are social norms against a political preference. I then show observational evidence of stigma leading to t

摘要

Amitav, Acharya
美利坚大学特聘教授、清华大学苏世民书院访问学者

The discipline of International Relations (IR) does not reflect the voice of the vast majority of the societies and states in the world, and often marginalizes those outside the core countries of the West. With IR scholars around the world seeking to find their own voices and reexamining their own traditions, our challenge now is to chart a course toward a truly inclusive discipline, recognizing its multiple and diverse foundations. This article presents the notion of a Global IR that transcends the divide between the West and the Rest. The first part of the article outlines six main dimensions of Global IR: commitment to pluralistic universalism, grounding in world history, redefining existing IR theories and methods and building new ones from societies hitherto ignored as sources of IR knowledge, integrating the study of regions and regionalisms into the central concerns of IR, avoiding ethnocentrism and exceptionalism irrespective of source and form, and recognizing a broader conception of agency with material and ideational elements that includes resistance, normative action, and local constructions of global order. It then outlines an agenda for research that supports the Global IR idea. Key element of the agenda includes comparative studies of international systems that look past and beyond the Westphalian form, conceptualizing the nature and characteristics of a post-Western world order that might be termed as a Multiplex World, expanding the study of regionalisms and regional orders beyond Eurocentric models, building synergy between disciplinary and area studies approaches, expanding our investigations into the two-way diffusion of ideas and norms, and investigating the multiple and diverse ways in which civilizations encounter each other, which includes peaceful interactions and mutual learning. The challenge of building a Global IR does not mean a one-size-fits-all approach; rather, it compels us to recognize the diversity that exists in our world, seek common ground, and resolve conflicts.

Hegemony Studies 3.0: The Dynamics of Hegemonic Orders

Ikenberry, G.J and Nexon, D.H

May 27 2019 | SECURITY STUDIES 28 (3)

After the end of World War II, various iterations of hegemony have emerged, each with its own provision of international public goods, the causes of war during hegemonic transitions, and the stability of hegemonic orders. In this article, we discuss the evolution of hegemony studies and forward the emergence of a new wave of international hegemony studies. This research program

Goodbye, Postsocialism!

Müller, M
Apr 21 2019 | EUROPE-ASIA STUDIES 71 (4) , pp.533-550

This article assesses the trajectory of postsocialism as a concept and mounts a fivefold critique of postsocialism as: referring to a vanishing object; emphasising rupture over continuity; falling into a territorial trap; issuing from orientalising knowledge construction; and constraining political futures. This critique serves to sketch the contours of an alternative project that still recogni

The end of liberal international order?

These are not happy times for liberal internationalists. No one can be sure how deep the crisis of liberal internationalism runs. However, in what follows, I argue that despite its troubles, liberal internationalism still has a future. The nature of the crisis is surprising. The threats to liberal internationalism were expected to come from rising non-western states seeking to undermine or over

International relations in China and Europe: the case for interregional dialogue in a hegemonic discipline

The international relations (IR) discipline is known as an 'American Social Science' dominated by scholars and theories from the US core. This paper compares IR in two noncore settings, China and Europe. It shows that there is a growing institutional and intellectual integration into global Anglophone, mostly American, IR in both Europe and China. Both Chinese and European IR communities have e

The social and cultural contexts of HIV/AIDS transmission in the Kagera Region, Tanzania

Lugalla, JLP; Emmelin, MAC; (...); Dahlgren, LG

Nov 1999 | JOURNAL OF ASIAN AND AFRICAN STUDIES 34 (4), pp.377-402

Like poverty, the HIV/AIDS epidemic is affecting the sub-continent of Saharan Africa more severely than any other parts of the world, with sixty three percent of global AIDS cases occurring in this region. Tanzania is one of the severely affected countries within sub-Saharan Africa. It is evident that AIDS in this continent is transmitted mainly through heterosexual contact. Since a cure is yet ... 显示更多

Exploring the Human Capital Development Dimensions of Chinese Investments in Africa: Opportunities, Implications and Directions for Further Research

Agbebi, M

Mar 2019 | JOURNAL OF ASIAN AND AFRICAN STUDIES 54 (2), pp.189-210

被引参考文献深度分析 探索中国在非洲投资的人力资本发展层面：进一步研究的机会、影响和方向

This article uses a case-study approach to discuss the effects of Chinese economic engagement on three dimensions of human capital development: local employment, training and skill building, and knowledge and technology transfer. The study findings suggests that Chinese economic engagement can and does contribute to human capital development in Africa; however, this is dependent on certain sect ... 显示更多

Mental Health and Wellbeing of South Sudanese-Australians

Abur, W and Mphande, C

May 2020 | JOURNAL OF ASIAN AND AFRICAN STUDIES 55 (3), pp.412-428

The majority of South Sudanese-Australians arrived in Australia, and other host countries outside Africa, after spending a greater part of their lives in refugee camps or conflict-affected areas. In addition, refugees are often not able to return to their home countries because the causes of their departure (wars, insecurity, hunger) continue to apply in their country of origin. The purpose of ... 显示更多

EndNote 自动生成符合期刊格式要求的参考文献

不同领域、不同期刊的参考文献格式不尽相同

参考文献格式正确与否直接关系着我们文章投稿的成功率

未经编委审查，在期刊初审阶段就退稿，很大一部分是格式问题，特别是参考文献格式。

即使是最高水平的期刊，其中也有30%的文章有参考文献的错误，这大大降低了文章被引用次数的统计。

EndNote 自动编排和格式化文中和文后参考文献格式
